

SUMMARY OF RESPONSES (ISWorld Posting; 2001-07-02)

Dear Colleagues,

I am in the process of updating the Endnote Library on Web Development:
<http://www.isworld.org/isworld/isworldtext.html#top> (Research Resources Section)

At the moment, the updated file comprises about 850 entries. Any suggestions regarding your papers or books (published in 2000 or 2001) that should be included in that collection would be greatly appreciated. Please reply to me personally and I'll post a summary of the responses - together with the final endnote file - to the list.

Thank you!
~ Arno Scharl
